Paper Straws Suck - Or Rather, They Don't!

Paper straws were supposed to solve the problem of plastic straws. But let's face it: Paper straws are gross. They collapse on themselves and dissolve in your drink. A Mahalo Straw lasts for THOUSANDS of drinks, not just half of one.

Plastic Straws Harm Our Oceans

People use 500 million plastic straws every day, and many of them end up in the ocean or on our beaches, where they can hurt or kill marine life. By a Mahalo Straw, you can help save our planet.

Mahalo Straws Are The Future

The Mahalo Straw is a collapsible metal straw that lasts for years. Do your part to protect our marine life: Reduce your waste with the guilt-free straw that goes with you everywhere.

The World Is In Your Hands

A portion of all sales will be donated to environmental groups ensuring that future generations will grow up in a beautiful world.
